WHUS 91.7 FM UCONN's Radio for the People
Summer 2005
Public Affairs Schedule

Monday Through Friday:
Democracy Now! (Noon-1pm) www.democracynow.org
Free Speech Radio News (5:30-6pm) www.fsrn.org

MONDAY

This Way Out (7-7:30am) www.thiswayout.org
This program is the award-winning weekly radio newsmagazine produced for, about, and by lesbians and gay men, carried on more than 85 stations in seven countries. Each program includes "NewsWrap," a summary of news in or affecting the gay/lesbian community. Isn't it time you discovered This Way Out?

WINGS (7:30-8am) www.wings.org
The Women's International News Gathering Service reports news by, for, and about women around the world. This weekly news and feature program brings women's work, voices, and issues to the airwaves. WINGS is supported in part by The Foundation for a Compassionate Society.

Pet Time (5-5:30pm) First Monday of the month
Pet Time features interviews with people who work with and care about the animals we share our lives with. Featuring pet health care consultant Dr. Todd Friedland, DVM, P.C., and interviews with animal rescue workers, pet owners, researchers, and others. This locally produced program is hosted by long time WHUS'er Helen Scanlon.

Straight, No Chaser (5-5:30pm) Second and Fourth Mondays of the month
Join Tony for a look at the issues of the day.

TUESDAY

Alternative Radio (7-8am) www.alternativeradio.org
A weekly one-hour public affairs series that features diverse perspectives on national and international issues. Alternative Radio programs challenge the conventional news usually promoted by the mainstream media. Programs feature public lectures, speeches, and addresses by today's most significant progressive thinkers, activists, and commentators.

Poets of the Tabloid Murder (5-5:30pm)
Interviews with today's authors on the mystery scene. With your host Steve Nester.

WEDNESDAY

Between the Lines (7-7:30am) www.btlonline.org
The week's underreported news, and alternative analysis, of events in Connecticut, the United States, and the world. Between the Lines is produced by the news and public affairs staff at WPKN.

CounterSpin (7:30-8am) www.counterspin.org
This is the weekly half-hour radio show of FAIR, the national media watch group. It provides tough, independent journalism that cuts against the media grain. In addition to exposing biased and inaccurate news CounterSpin covers censored and underreported stories.

Homefront Radio (5-5:30)
Untold Positive Stories about people and organizations that make a positive difference for the quality of life in our region. Local news about people and local services and special events at UConn and Eastern Connecticut. This radio series is co-produced by CTV-14, public access community television at Charter Cable TV in Eastern Connecticut. Watch for the weekly series "On the Homefront" on CTV-14 and enjoy Homefront Radio on Wednesdays at 5:00 PM on WHUS 91.7 FM. If you would like to be a guest contact John Murphy at WHUS at 860-486-8604. E-mail: generalmananger@whus.org

THURSDAY

New Dimensions (7-8am) www.newdimensions.org
A series of radio dialogues presenting a diversity of views from leaders in many disciplines and from many cultures and traditions. They strive to empower listeners with practical knowledge and perennial wisdom. Topics range from new paradigms in business, to quantum physics, healthy living, aging, ecology, the digital revolution, arts, and music. Each week, one or two guests engage in lively conversation with the host.

A Distant Shore (5-5:30)
A local program hosted by Richard Sherman, reporting on local issues and events from a progressive and ecological perspective.

FRIDAY

Making Contact (7-7:30am) www.radioproject.org
On this national public-affairs program, listeners hear from people who share experiences and insights -- not the conventional wisdom. The producers of Making Contact believe that radio can serve democratic communication rather than just broadcasting views acceptable to big-money interests that pay the piper.

Building Bridges (7:30-8am)

New Focus (5-5:30pm) www.newfocusradio.org
Host Mike DeRosa brings you the latest in health, environmental, and consumer news and views, with a local perspective.

SATURDAY

Latino USA (4-4:30pm) www.latinousa.org
The only national, English language radio journal of news and culture produced from a Latin perspective. Provides multiple perspectives on issues affecting Latin people and enhances relationships among Latin communities while fostering a cross-cultural understanding.

The Shortwave Report (4:30-5:00pm) www.outfarpress.com
Thirty minute review of news stories throughout the world recorded from a shortwave radio.

Changesurfer Radio (5:30-6pm) www.changesurfer.com
A show about the future implications of emerging biotechnology, computing, telecommunications, and astrophysics. Interviews with artists and authors, pundits and prophets, scientists and skeptics.

Radio Nation (6-7:00pm) www.radionation.org
News and analysis of current events from the folks at The Nation magazine.

SUNDAY

The Hour of Slack (Midnight-1am) www.subgenius.com
Straight from Dallas, Texas, cult capital of the world, comes The Hour of Slack. This one-hour media barrage is the radio ministry program. Tune in, slack off, and get right with BOB!
